(8) No person shall be eligible to participate in the lottery process for grant of quarry lease, unless such person is an Indian national or company as defined in clause (20) of Section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013, (18 of 2013) or partnership firm as defined in Section 4 of the Indian Partnership Act, 1932;

Explanation: - For the purpose of this rule, a person shall be deemed to be an Indian national, -

- (a) in the case of a partnership firm, only if all the partners of the partnership firm are citizens of India: and
- (b) in the case of an individual, only if he is a citizen of India.

(9) The selection of successful applicant shall be conducted through e-lottery platform.

(10) The technical application received through online will be opened as per the schedule notified under sub-rule (5) of rule 27 in presence of the applicants.

(11) In case of a conflict between documents submitted electronically and document submitted physically, the documents submitted physically shall prevail. However, application submitted physically shall not be accepted in absence of the corresponding online submission.

(12) The technical applications shall be scrutinised by a Technical Committee constituted by the Government under the Chairmanship of respective Controlling Authority and only those applicants who are found to be eligible in accordance with the terms and conditions of eligibility as prescribed under sub-rule (8) of the rule 27, shall be declared as "Technically Qualified Applicants" (TQA) and shall be allowed to participate in lottery.

(13) The selected applicant shall be intimated by the Competent Authority within seven days in Form-F about the selection and terms and conditions of the lease.

(14) Within fifteen days of such intimation, the selected applicant shall be required to convey his or her acceptance of the terms and conditions and to deposit an amount which shall be calculated in such a way that it shall be equivalent to one-fourth of the total amount of royalty and additional charge for minor minerals and the amount of contribution payable to the District Mineral Foundation and Environment Management Fund on the annual minimum guaranteed quantity, taken together, reduced by the amount of earnest money, which, along with the earnest money, shall be held as interest-free security deposit :

Provided that the selected applicant shall be allowed by the competent authority another fifteen days for deposit of above amount for the reasons of the delay cannot be ascribable to the selected applicant:

Provided further that in the event of failure to deposit the above amount within the time period or additional time period as provided above the selection of the applicant shall be annulled and the applicant shall be debarred from participating in lottery process for next five years within the State:

Provided also that in the event of such failure by the selected applicant, a fresh e-lottery shall be conducted among the remaining technically qualified applicants as determined under sub-rule (12). If the applicant selected in this second round through e-lottery also fails to deposit the above amount, the e-lottery shall be annulled and a fresh notification inviting applications for grant of quarry lease through e-lottery shall be published.

(15) The selected applicant shall also deposit the costs of obtaining the mining plan and environmental clearance approvals, in case those have been obtained by the Competent Authority (non-refundable) before executing the lease deed.

(16) Immediately after compliance of the foregoing provisions by the selected applicant, the earnest money of the unsuccessful applicant shall be refunded and the bank guarantees, if any, furnished by them, shall stand discharged.

(17) The selected applicant shall be required to execute quarry lease in Form-N within three weeks from the date of intimation of his selection, if the approval of the mining plan and environment clearance has been obtained before lottery, and in other cases, the selected applicant shall obtain statutory clearance i.e. Mining Plan, Environment Clearance, Consent to Operate (CTO), Consent to Establish (CTE) within six months of receipt of intimation of his or her selection by the competent authority:

Provided that the time for obtaining statutory clearance shall be extended for another three months or as allowed by the State Government not exceeding six months for the reasons of delay beyond the control of the selected applicant:

Provided further that in the event of failure to execute the lease deed by the selected applicant within the stipulated time as mentioned above the quarry lease shall be put for fresh e-lottery.

(18) Before execution of lease deed, first installment of payment under sub-rule (3) of rule 32 of the said rules shall be deposited by the selected applicant in respective heads of account as notified by State Government.

(19) Security deposit shall be refunded after expiry of the lease period if the lessee has fulfilled all conditions of lease and in case of violation of any of the conditions of lease, the security deposit shall be forfeited in whole or in part by the Competent Authority.

(20) The Controlling authority as defined in Schedule-III, shall have power to cancel the lottery duly recording the reasons thereof, if he or she is not satisfied with the publicity, participation of applicant and amount of additional charge for minor minerals quoted.

(21) Where the selected applicant dies after deposit of the amount specified under sub-rule (14) or after execution of lease deed by him, such deposit or deed shall be deemed to have been made or executed by the legal heir if they so like.”

6. In the said rules, after rule 27, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“27A. Transitory Provision.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, any lessee who has obtained a quarry lease or permit under the earlier e-

auction regime may, within such period as may be notified by the Government, exercise an option either—

- (a) to continue under the existing lease conditions till expiry of the lease period; or
- (b) to opt for migration to the e-lottery regime introduced under these amended rules for the remaining period of the lease.

(2) In case a lessee opts for migration to the e-lottery regime, he shall execute a fresh agreement in such form as may be prescribed and shall be governed by all the terms and conditions applicable to leases granted under the amended rules, including , —

- (i) the fixation of maximum sale price of minor minerals as may be notified by the Government from time to time as provided under rule 47A;
- (ii) the limit on the number of quarries or leases that may be held by an individual or entity within a district and in the State as provided under rule 3A; and
- (iii) observance of the right of pre-emption of the State Government over minor minerals, wherever applicable as provided under sub-rule (20) of rule 33.

(3) Upon execution of such fresh agreement, the previous lease conditions shall cease to have effect and the lease shall be governed by the amended rules.

(4) Any lessee who does not exercise the option within the stipulated period shall continue under the existing lease conditions till expiry or termination of the lease, as the case may be.

27B. Priority for quarry lease on private land.— If a minor mineral deposit is located on privately owned land, the owner(s) of that land shall have the first right of refusal to apply for and obtain the quarry lease for the mineral deposit within the boundaries of their land. The landowner shall exercise this right by submitting a valid application in the prescribed Form-M, with all required documents and fees of rupees ten thousand in accordance with these rules. The Competent Authority shall give due consideration to such application before initiating any other allotment process (e-lottery) for that mineral deposit. All royalties, fees, and other dues payable under these rules by a quarry leaseholder shall equally apply to the landowner when granted a lease under this rule. In addition, the landowner shall be liable to pay an additional charge for minor minerals as defined in sub-clause (ba) of clause (1) rule 2 of the rules, payable along with the royalty and other dues as per the lease terms. ” .
